

Exhibitions

2023 Bound + Determined, Main Street Gallery, Dama Gallery, Los Angeles, CA

Made In California, Brea Gallery, Brea, CA

2022 Tom of Finland Art and Culture Festival, Tom of Finland Foundation, Los Angeles CA (curated by Tucker Neel, presented by Artillery Magazine)

2021 Textures & Patterns, La Laguna Art Gallery, Laguna Beach, CA

2020 Reciprocity, Art Share LA, Los Angeles, CA (Co-curated by Anefertiti Bowman)

Publications

2024 Jasmine Brown, "Daily Inspiration: Dom Victoria," VoyageLA,

January 2, 2024

<https://voyagela.com/interview/daily-inspiration-meet-dominique-victoria/>

2022 Tucker Neel, "Tom's Queers," Tom of Finland, September 20,

2022

<https://www.tomoffinland.org/toms-queers-at-art-culture-festival/>

2020 Sid Reddy, "Meet Dom Victoria," VoyageLA, April 6, 2020

<http://voyagela.com/interview/meet-dom-victoria-dom-victoria-art-south-la/>

Evan L. Jackson, "Reciprocity: Lost Narratives, New Voices Art Gallery Showcase," Young Bold and Regal, January 13, 2020, (Online magazine covering group show Reciprocity)

<https://www.youngboldandregal.com/2020/01/reciprocity-lost-narratives-new-voices.html>

Education

2020 BFA , Otis College of Art and Design, Los Angeles, CA

Bio and CV

Dom Victoria lives and works in Los Angeles. They graduated from Otis College of Art and Design with a BFA in painting. Their recent exhibitions include Bound + Determined, Main Street Gallery (2023, group show), Made in California 38th edition, Brea Gallery, Brea (2023, group show), and Tom's Queers, a special exhibition presented by Artillery Magazine for the Tom of Finland Art and Culture Festival (2022, group show). They have been featured in the publication VoyageLA.